

Choosing a Belief 11/2/16

Belief/Quote

"It's never too late to be who you are." - Mom

Evidence (Anecdote)

In 1999 I went bungee jumping in Switzerland at age 23.

Analysis

I believe this (quote) because... I have lived my way into seeing its truth.

Extended metaphor

11/2/16 Mini-lesson: extended metaphor

Definition:

Extended: longer, larger, stretched metaphor: comparison of literally unlike things, without using like or as, to figuratively emphasize features or characteristics or details.

Example: Love is candy.

"Zombie loves Vampire to death.

Vampire is sugary sweet and caring like a red gummy bear.

Their love is candy; it's addicting."
